Long Story Short:
The Andrew Ditch Timeline Project
Year: 2020

Late 2019 or Early 2020 - Andrew was featured on JJ Stoner's YouTube channel (YouTube / Rumble).

2020 January 12 - A post about Andrew was created in Kiwi Farms' Thread Requests and Resources (Link / Archive).

2020 January 21 - Andrew was given a psychological evaluation by Dr. Justin Naylor, who was only able to diagnose him with "unspecified anxiety disorder" due to Andrew having "contaminated the evaluation" with a "significant amount of emails, texts, and phone calls" (Psychological Evaluation, January 2020 / Archive).

> Please note: Believing that Dr. Naylor was not going to give him the diagnosis he wanted, Andrew added Jamie Kraft, a friend who suffers from schizophrenia, to a group chat with Dr. Naylor to confront the doctor, asking, "Do I talk like that? That's a crazy man. I don't go talking like that, do I?" (Video Link, Timestamp: 2:54).

2020 January 30 - Andrew ran away from the shelter where he had been residing (Video Link, Timestamp: 2:51, 4:40)

2020 January 31 - Ryan, a shelter employee, contacted Andrew's father, Tom, to inform him that Andrew used "very inappropriate language towards our staff that could be considered as threatening [...] we are looking to have him discharged early next week" (Video Link, Timestamp: 6:11). Tom later stated in a separate recording that, while Andrew was at the shelter, the police had been called 40 times in one weekend (Video Link, Timestamp: 1:01).

2020 February 3 - Andrew was discharged from Erie County Medical Center Comprehensive Psychiatric Emergency Program (ECMC CPEP) (Giuseppina Bugenhagen's Fair Hearing Summary, September 2021, Page 11 / Archive).

2020 February 4 (Approximately 9 PM) - Andrew staged a suicide attempt (Video Link). Andrew's mother, Jan, described the incident, stating, "He [Andrew] was standing in the street and waiting for a car [...] he took his jacket off and ran" (Video Link, Timestamp: 2:14). Afterward, Andrew was transported to CPEP on a 9.41 hold (Giuseppina Bugenhagen's Fair Hearing Summary, September 2021, Pages: 11, 12 / Archived Pages: 11, 12). He later admitted that he staged the suicide attempt to manipulate his brother, Joe, as well as others, and to obtain services he believed he was entitled to:

> "I staged a suicide to get help. You know, somebody to listen to me and get me a place to be able to stay" (Video Link, Timestamp: 1:09).

"Joe never answers his phone until I stage a suicide. That was only just to get a shelter and some help and a group home" (Video Link, Timestamp: 2:00).

2020 February 14 - Andrew was denied services from the Office of People With Developmental Disabilities (OPWDD) because "a diagnosis of autism spectrum disorder continues to not be substantiated based on the documentation submitted" (OPWDD Denial Letter, April 2020 / Archive).

2020 February 19 - While eating with his family at Burger King, Andrew "went completely apeshit" and ran from the restaurant, prompting his parents to call the police (Video Link, Timestamp: 0:14). He left one of his electronic devices in the car to record the conversation his parents had with responding officers. The following could be heard:

- The officer stated that he understood Andrew was not autistic but was "making himself ill" so he could be taken care of (Video Link, Timestamp: 2:45).
- Andrew's father, Tom, spoke about his blood pressure being very high "because Andy's back," the house looking as though "a cyclone" hit it, and how Andrew had demanded they eat dinner in the dark the previous night (Video Link, Timestamp: 5:15).
- When Tom stated that Andrew could not cross the street on his own, the officer corrected him, noting he had previously seen Andrew cross the street successfully (Video Link, Timestamp: 8:08).

2020 February 23 - Annoyed by Andrew's persistent filming, Tom was driven to self-harm (Video Link). Andrew responded by refusing to eat his dinner, whining, and playing with his toys.

2020 February 24 - Andrew uploaded a video in which he giggled and mimicked the stereotypical symptoms of schizophrenia (Video Link, time 6:42 / Archive).

Please note: Andrew believes that if he convinces the listener he cannot act convincingly "schizophrenic," then he cannot act convincingly "autistic" either, which means his autism must be real. He would continue doing this on February 25th (Video Link).

2020 February 26:

- Andrew called Crisis Services and sobbed hysterically because his father and his brother were playing the guitar and trumpet (Video Links: 1, 2 / Archive Links: 1, 2).
- Andrew uploaded his earliest documented communication with Western New York Independent Living (WNYIL), a disability services and support organization (Video Link, Timestamp: 8:19 / Archive).

2020 February 29:

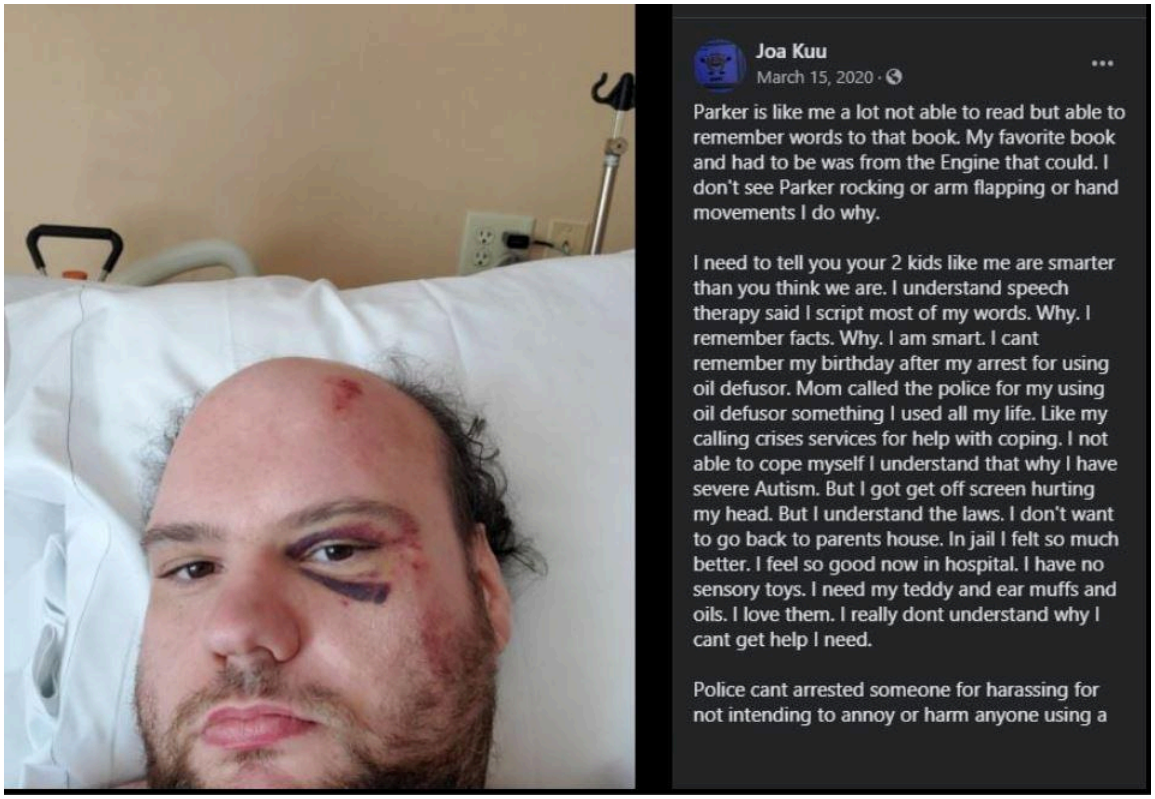
- Andrew called the police to his parents' home because Tom criticized him for eating four cinnamon rolls. Andrew was verbally abusive toward the officers, claimed he had a gun, and then beat himself in the head (Video Link / Archive).
- Andrew uploaded his infamous "I'm Poopin' Myself" video, in which he said the following:

"Gotta try and relax, gotta try and relax…and I think I'm poopin' myself, damn it! I'm poopin' myself! I'm poopin' myself! I'm preeeeennuugh I didn't even know I was recording this" (Video Link, Timestamp: 1:44 / Archive).

2020 March 8 - 12 - Andrew uploaded a series of videos documenting the conditions inside his parents' home (Video Links: 1, 2, 3).

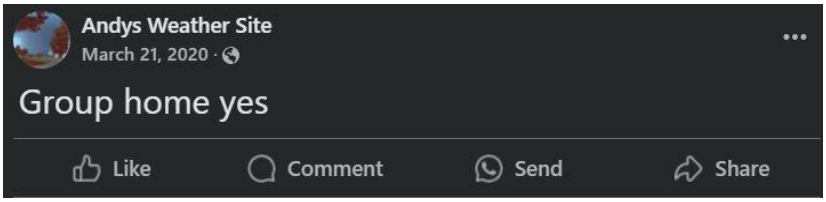
2020 March 13 - Police were called to the Ditch residence after Andrew refused to turn off an oil diffuser, which he had been running at full blast (Video Links: 1, 2). Andrew knew this was something he shouldn't be doing, as the intense smell caused his mother, who was on oxygen, to have difficulty breathing and it would also bother the family's dogs. Andrew was arrested and removed from the home (Video Link). A temporary order of protection was later issued, lasting "until and including September 14, 2020" (Temporary Order of Protection, March 2020, Pages: 1, 2 / Archived Pages: 1, 2).

2020 March 15 - Andrew arrived at Mount St. Mary's Hospital with a head injury (Mount St. Mary's Hospital Discharge Summary, March 2020 / Archive / Screenshot).



2020 March 20 - 21 - Andrew created a cardboard picket sign to protest his current situation and living conditions (Video Link). The police arrived during his protest, listened to his ranting, and then escorted him back to his motel room at the Scottish Inn (Video Link).

2020 March 21 - Andrew made the following post on Facebook (Link / Archive):



2020 March 29 - Andrew uploaded a video in which he explained how he used threats of suicide to manipulate people. He stated the following (Video Link, Timestamp: 0:02):

> "This is the only time my dad has ever any remorse, or even my brother Joseph Ditch, when Andy's, uh, plotting something just to try to get a 9.41 so I can get a safe place to be so I didn't have to go back to my parents. No, this was not an attempt for suicide. No, this was never ever putting myself in harm's way. It was just talk and a, uh, running away from the cab driver from ECMC just to make it look even worse."

Andrew then played several examples of himself using this technique on his parents (Video Link, Timestamp: 0:45), his former advocate, Joann (Video Link, Timestamp: 4:07), and his brother, Joe (Video Link, Timestamp: 5:00).

2020 April 3 - After being determined not eligible for OPWDD services on February 14, 2020, Andrew's documents were sent to a Third Step Eligibility Committee for review. This committee determined the following:

- A diagnosis of autism could "not be substantiated based on the documentation submitted" (OPWDD Denial Letter, April 2020 / Archive).
- "Anecdotal information in the records suggests that he [Andrew] has certain skills and abilities related to functional independence, but intentionally presents as needing others to do things for him" (OPWDD Denial Letter, April 2020 / Archive)

2020 April 4 - Andrew uploaded two videos in which he threw his medications in the trash, an act his viewers would see repeated many times in future videos (Video Links, 1, 2).

2020 April 6 - Andrew was featured on the YouTube channels Daywave (Video Link) and Revenge of the Cis (Video Link / Archive).

> Royce: "See, the thing is, you hear his voice so you feel bad for him, but he's there, he's all there. He's asking for a court order, asking for a lawyer. Like, he's not- he's not retarded, you know? He's a dick!" (Video Link, Timestamp: 10:26).

2020 April 13 - Andrew falsely reported to the police that he had killed ten people. He stated that he did this in order to go to jail, where he believed his housing and care needs would be met (Video Links: 1, 2).

2020 April 14 - 15 - Andrew uploaded a series of concerning and revolting videos from the Scottish Inn:

- My room is messy and I want help - Footage from Andrew's cluttered hotel room, where a bag of soiled diapers sat on the bathroom floor.
- It is OK to have Mrsa no help with taking medication - The first video to show Andrew's skin condition, hidradenitis suppurativa (his leg sores or "leg sours" as they are often called).
- I am struggling crossing the street with - The earliest of many "crossing the street" videos.
- My struggle - A video where Andrew pretended to have difficulty tying the drawstrings on his pants.
- Bed time... - sorry I never like pants on [...] - Andrew recorded himself walking around his hotel room while wearing a soiled, yellow diaper.
- Life skills - Bed Time... - sorry no pants on - A video where Andrew audio recorded himself defecating into a toilet (23:00), proving that he does not need a diaper, as he claims.

2020 April 21 - The first YouTube channel critical of Andrew, Andrew Poopy Pants Ditch, uploaded its first video: ANDREW DITCH FAKES AUTISM (Video Link / Archive).

2020 April 27 - Andrew was admitted to Kenmore Mercy Hospital (KMH), where he remained until May 5, 2020.

Social work notes from this visit include the following:

- "Patient was removed by police three times from last three motel placements" (KMH Social Work Notes, May 2020 / Archive).
- "Lisa [SPOA Coordinator] says that the patient does not qualify for housing because 'he has a recent history of violence and he chooses to wear diapers' Lisa reports that the patient has over 8 referrals and he has sabotaged all efforts because the solution was not through OPWDD. Lisa informed writer that the patient is manipulative and sabotages all efforts of all of his community resources" (KMH Social Work Notes, May 2020 / Archive).
- "The patient [Andrew] reports that he will continue to decline all assistance through the Office of Mental Health because it would eliminate his chances to receive assistance from OPWDD" (KMH Social Work Notes, May 2020 / Archive).

2020 May (Exact Date Unknown) - Andrew left Dr. Naylor, a one-star Google review (Link / Archive / Screenshot).

> Please note: Dr. Naylor diagnosed Andrew with Schizoaffective Disorder in December 2019 (Video Link, Timestamp: 1:50).

2020 May 5:

- Andrew was discharged from KMH. He attempted to manipulate hospital staff into readmitting him by claiming that if he were hit by a car after leaving, the hospital would be held responsible (Video Link). He would use this manipulation tactic many more times in the future.

- After leaving KMH, Andrew called Crisis Services, claiming to be suicidal while wandering in traffic (ECMC Mental Health Assessment, May 2020 / Archive). He was subsequently brought to ECMC CPEP on a 9.45 hold, where he underwent a mental health assessment.

  > Please note: A 9.45 code indicates that a person is to be transported for psychiatric evaluation under NYS Mental Hygiene Law. It is similar to a 9.41 but does not need to be initiated by the police (for example, a physician or a qualified mental health professional can initiate it).

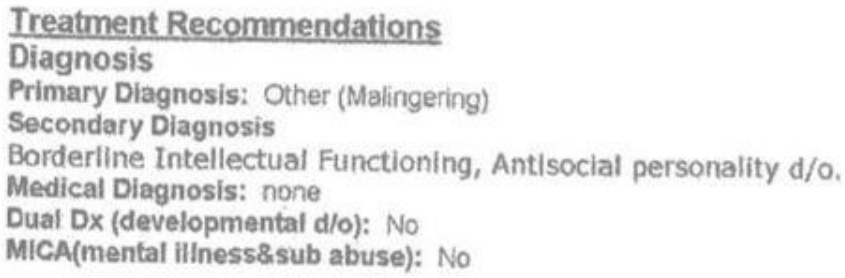
  Significant quotes from this assessment included:

  - "Patient denies lethality to this writer telling this writer 'I was never suicidal I just said that to come here because I needed somewhere to stay'" (ECMC Mental Health Assessment, May 2020 / Archive).
  - "It is clear that his agenda right now is seeking housing [...] He continues to claim that he is diagnosed with an autism spectrum disorder, but as per his chart, he does not qualify for OPWDD services" (ECMC Mental Health Assessment, May 2020 / Archive).
  - "He chronically sabotages the efforts and resources to establish stable housing, despite having been afforded multiple opportunities in the past at social admission and subsequent placement, inpatient psychiatric treatment and subsequent housing referrals" (ECMC Mental Health Assessment, May 2020 / Archive).
  - "He often uses SI [suicidal ideation] and other behavior including things like incontinence and somatic c/o [complaints of] as a means of trying to avoid taking responsibility of self-care" (ECMC Mental Health Assessment, May 2020 / Archive).
  - "The most appropriate clinical assessment of his behavior and maladaptive coping mechanisms is likely a combination of character pathology (he has been diagnosed with antisocial personality disorder, but also has a tendency toward paranoia that may or may not be manipulative / just externalizing, verses contributions of dependent personality traits), but also seems consistent with a fictitious disorder given the degree of unconscious somatization that seems to serve a functional purpose in helping him being taken care of because he frequently invokes the sick role" (ECMC Mental Health Assessment, May 2020 / Archive).
  - His primary diagnosis was listed as "Other (Malingering)" and his secondary diagnosis as "Borderline Intellectual Functioning, Antisocial personality d/o [disorder]" (ECMC Mental Health Assessment, May 2020 / Archive).



Treatment Recommendations
Diagnosis
Primary Diagnosis: Other (Malingering)
Secondary Diagnosis
Borderline Intellectual Functioning, Antisocial personality d/o.
Medical Diagnosis: none
Dual Dx (developmental d/o): No
MICA(mental illness&sub abuse): No

2020 May 6 - 12 (Exact Dates Unclear) - After leaving ECMC, Andrew stayed at two shelters: Holy Cross and the Erie Community College (ECC) Flickinger Center. He was forced to leave the ECC shelter after exposing himself to others. According to Shannon, Andrew's Adult Protective Services (APS) worker:

> "You were asked to leave that shelter because you were exposing yourself to the people that were there, and you were videotaping" (Video Link, Timestamp: 21:57).

2020 May 8 - Andrew uploaded a recording of a conversation with a representative from the Western New York Developmental Disabilities Services Office, who stated that Andrew "presents as a higher level of care of what he actually needs" (Video Link, Timestamp: 25:37). The representative also stated:

> "Andy, on his own behest, decided to place additional demands on what his needs are so that he can state that he's being refused" (Video Link, Timestamp: 26:31).
> Please note: This is a tactic that Andrew uses to this day. For example, if he knows he will be discharged from a hospital to a shelter, he immediately contacts the shelter and lies about needing a higher level of assistance, such as help with changing his diaper. This forces the state to find him better living arrangements.

2020 May 12 - Andrew again falsely reported to the police that he had killed 10 people (Video Links: 1, 2).

2020 May 20 - Andrew left a review on Amazon for his weighted bear:

> "Teddy saved me from bad meltdowns because I can squeeze myself so i relax so I don't hurt my head as much. Bear hugs is the term used for me with squeeze that helps me. Hugs to me are only for therapy. Soft hugs yuck. I need that squeeze" (Link / Archive).

2020 May 21 - Andrew uploaded his first video from the B-Cozy Motel, where he would reside until mid-November (Video Link).

2020 June 7 - Andrew turned 35 years old.

2020 June 13 - Police arrived at the B-Cozy after Andrew had falsely reported to 911 that he had killed 10 people (Video Link). He admitted to the officer that he made this false confession for self-serving purposes: to obtain housing and receive the assistance he claimed to need (Video Link, Timestamp: 0:45).

2020 June 14 - A second Kiwi Farms thread about Andrew was created (Link / Archive).

2020 June 17 - In a phone call with an ECMC social worker, Andrew stated that his ECMC CPEP records indicated that he had been diagnosed with factitious disorder (Video Link, Timestamp: 8:23).

2020 June 19 - A Certified Community Behavioral Health Clinics (CCBHC) integrated assessment included the following statement:

> "Andrew presents with Unspecified Anxiety Disorder and Autism Spectrum Disorder which appears to be precipitated by wanting to get into OPWDD" (CCBHC Integrated Assessment, June 2020 / Archive).

2020 June 21 - Tim the Social Worker called Andrew and his parents (Video Link). Topics discussed with Tim included Andrew's incontinence, his 2005 head injury, and the time Andrew beat up his brother Joe. Tom stated to Tim:

> "After the second one [surgery] at Children's, then he [Andrew] had bedwetting, but he didn't have to wear it [a diaper] during the daytime or anything and he never really wore it until the last two years, when he started really changing for the worst, where he is now, and he has to wear it 24/7 and all this other stuff" (Video Link, Timestamp: 5:10).

2020 June 26 - A 9.41 document from the North Tonawanda Police Department (NTPD) indicated that Andrew was taken to ECMC CPEP due to an inability to care for himself, suicidal ideation, and verbal threats. The same document noted that Andrew exhibited "incoherent/illogical speech," was "talking to self," had "extreme rapid/uncontrolled speech," was "hostile," and was "confused/disoriented" (NTPD Document, June 2020 / Archive).

2020 July 3 - An unknown man briefly confronted Andrew, then left after Andrew called the police (Video Links: 1, 2). An officer later informed Andrew that no crime had been committed by this man (Video Link, Timestamp: 6:20).

2020 July 9 - Andrew uploaded a 911 call in which he reported that his father was stalking him (Video Link). During the call, Andrew verbally assaulted the dispatcher, calling him *"a piece of shit pig" (Video Link, Timestamp: 1:21).

2020 July 10 - Andrew uploaded a video in which he unintentionally revealed several of his alternate YouTube accounts, one of which was Devilslifehell (Video Link, Timestamp: 0:14). This account would become significant in the future.

Please note: In the above screenshots, I have censored the links Andrew posted to prevent them from being visited.

2020 August (Exact Date Unknown) - Andrew gave the B-Cozy a five-star Google review and contributed the following image (Link / Archive / Screenshot):

2020 August 1:

- Andrew uploaded a recording of a phone call in which he spoke with an employee of Prime Care, a group that organizes enrollment and care coordination for OPWDD. When he asked why he wasn't receiving OPWDD services, he was given the following response:

"Because the documentation that says you have autism is not a comprehensive autism eval that says you have it. So the doctors that did those comprehensive autism evals were Dr. Naylor and Dr. Santa Maria, and those both say you don't have autism. They both say you have some symptoms, but that you didn't meet the full criteria. And all the other documentation from the past that said you have autism, none of that is the full comprehensive autism eval, so that's the problem they are having" (Video Link, Timestamp: 4:00).

- Andrew uploaded a video showing a series of photographs taken at the B-Cozy (Video Link). Several of the images indicated that he had defecated in his bed and urinated from the open doorway to his room (Video Link, Timestamp: 26:22):

  "There's poop on my bed because Andy wasn't wanting wear diapers. There's me peeing outside because I was walking outside to sit on the chair and Andy started peein' myself cause I didn't want to wear diapers."

2020 August 3 - Andrew recorded a Niagara Falls police officer speaking separately with Krystal (his WNYIL advocate) and Denise (his APS worker). In both recordings, the women expressed skepticism about the level of care Andrew claimed to need (Video Link).

Krystal: "Andy is capable of much more than he states" (Video Link, Timestamp: 3:19).
Denise: "Obviously, no one is neglecting him" (Video Link, Timestamp: 9:13).
Denise: "He is under the impression that he qualifies for a group home, he does not. A lot of his behavior's purposeful" (Video Link, Timestamp: 10:25).

2020 August 6 - Andrew was notified by the police that he had been charged with falsely reporting a crime (referring to his April 13, 2020, claim that he had killed ten people) (Video Link). His court date was set for August 17, 2020.

Andrew: I have a legal right for discharge and I'm demanding it or else I'm going to be bringing some very bad people with me to DSS.
Jim: What does that mean?
Andrew: I think you guys are gonna be [chuckle] very shocked what I mean by that. I don't want any more services, please.
Jim: Is that a threat?
Andrew: It is a promise if I don't get services- if I don't get discharge.

2020 August 14 - Andrew claimed that a car ran over his foot after a phone call with his father (Video Link, Timestamp: 5:44).

Please note: Based on the information provided by Andrew, it is highly unlikely that this accident occurred. A video about this event, which reviewed and analyzed Andrew's account, was created by Andrew Ditch: The Poopsquatch 2.0 (Video Link / Archive).

2020 August 17:

- Andrew was seen at Buffalo General Hospital (details unclear) (Video Link).
- It is unknown if Andrew attended his court date.

- Andrew addressed Robbie Piccione (Robbiep2), whom he believed to be one of his cyberbullies, calling him a "piece of slime" and mocking him for being overweight (Video Link).

  > "Look at the trouble breathing because he's so fat. He probably has his dick hanging on between his legs because he's so fat" (Video Link, Timestamp: 0:46).

- Andrew addressed Robbie Piccione (Robbiep2), whom he believed to be one of his cyberbullies, calling him a "piece of slime" and mocking him for being overweight (Video Link).

- Andrew was taken to ECMC CPEP after claiming that he had taken six metformin pills (Video Link).

> Andrew: The Department of Health is coming to this hotel room today because Andy put poop on the wall and door because I'm sick and tired of this stuff, and at least it relaxes me touching poop. I actually enjoy touching it, but I fake autism. I fake it.
> Dispatcher: You enjoy touching the poop on the door?
> Andrew: Well, I actually find it a sensory-calming thing. It's like warm Play-Doh.

Following the incident, Andrew had a tantrum, screaming at his father and his brother while attempting to clean the motel room (Video Link). The owner of the B-Cozy also raised the room rate to $75 per night due to Andrew's actions (Video Link, Timestamp: 6:56).

2020 September 5 - In a conversation with his father, Andrew admitted to enjoying how both his own poop and his dog's poop felt in his hands (Video Link). He stated the following:

“Tucker's poo is pretty good feeling most of the time” (Video Link, Timestamp: 5:13).

2020 October 5 - Andrew uploaded a recording of himself and Juice speaking with a doctor, in which they attempted to get the doctor to prescribe Andrew a specific brand of diapers (Video Link, Timestamp: 21:39). Juice also stated to the doctor that she was uncertain if Andrew’s issues were medical or psychosomatic (Video Link, Timestamp: 13:19).

Please note: On more than one occasion, Andrew has asked medical professionals to indicate that he specifically needed "Better Dry" diapers when writing prescriptions. This is because "Better Dry" (white diapers) and "Crinklz" (ABDL diapers featuring childlike cartoon animal prints) are made by the same manufacturer, meaning that Andrew could order “Crinklz” with the “Better Dry” prescription.

2020 October 7 - Andrew uploaded a video of himself and his father arguing in the B-Cozy’s parking lot (Video Link).

2020 October 8 - Police were sent to the B-Cozy, as Andrew had threatened to bomb the Social Services building (Video Link, Timestamp: 2:18). Andrew stated that he did this in order to be taken to jail, where he could receive ABA therapy and other services.

2020 October 27 - Andrew was evaluated for the first time by the East Amherst Psychology Group (Video Links: 1, 2).

Please note: Andrew frequently cites this evaluation as evidence that he has autism. However, when the evaluation was submitted to OPWDD in December of 2020, it was not accepted as meeting their criteria for a qualifying developmental disability, and Andrew was deemed ineligible for their services:

> "The evaluator in this new report used self-reporting measures information almost exclusively, with only two brief checklists completed by Mr. Ditch's mother. A comprehensive autism evaluation must contain measures that gather a detailed developmental history from someone who knew the individual when they were younger, and a measure of structured observation. The most recent report did not meet our criteria for a comprehensive evaluation" (OPWDD Letter / Archive).

2020 November - The YouTube channel The Bigfoot Research Group was renamed to Andrew Ditch: The Poopsquatch. This was the first instance of the term "Poopsquatch" being used in connection with Andrew Ditch.

2020 November 3 - A Continuity of Care Document from this date stated the following:

> "The patient has been evaluated at Sea PEEP [sic] several times and found to be malingering. Several psychiatric providers evaluated the patient and family he is not truly autistic. There are also several notes that verify the patient reports to several different hospitals claiming that he is required to have higher level of care and is looking for people to take care of him. The patient has been found several different times on evaluation to not actually need a higher level of care, rather he is falsely claiming this and he is not autistic" (Video Link, Timestamp: 45:23).

2020 November 5 - Andrew admitted to owning the YouTube account Lary S, which had left comments on his videos stating that he was "a dangerous person" (Video Link, Timestamp: 0:12).

> "I don't understand what I did to these hospitals, dad. 'Cause I never hurt anyone that I'm aware of, except for at Millard Fillmore. I hurt that one nurse, but I didn't mean to, I was in a meltdown" (Video Link, Timestamp: 12:42).

2020 December 1 - Andrew recorded a phone call in which his cousin Tammy told him off, while Tom laughed in the background (Video Link).
